THE wedding of Mrs. Jennie McPhail Welch to Mr. William Robert Johnston, scheduled to take place at 6 P. M. of yesterday, owing to the extreme illness of the bride's mother, Mrs. Clement Carrington McPhail, was celebrated very quietly at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, only immediate relatives and a few intimate friends of Mrs. Welch and Mrs. McPhail, who had hastened to their home, No. 210 Harrison Street on hearing that Mrs. McPhail's condition had grown rapidly worse, being present.

Hon. Harry St. George Tucker and Mrs. Tucker, who had arrived from Norfolk Monday and are the guests of Judge and Mrs. L. L. Lewis on West Franklin Street; Mrs. J. Randolph Tucker, Mrs. John Lee Logan, Mrs. A. B. Cunn and Mrs. C. Carmichael, members of Mrs. McPhail's family, witnessed the ceremony, which was performed in the front parlor of the bride's home.

Mrs. Johnston has the sincere sympathy of the community and the earnest wishes of many friends for her mother's restoration to health. Both she and her mother are widely known and connected throughout Virginia as well as in Richmond, which has been their home since Mrs. Johnston's marriage.

Mr. Johnston belongs to the prominent North Carolina family of his name, but his residence and club membership here have thoroughly identified him with the social and business life of this city.

Langhorne-Forsythe.
A wedding in which Richmond relatives and friends are interested will be celebrated this evening at Nydrie, near Esmond, Albemarle county, when Miss Edith Forsythe will be given in marriage to Mr. William Henry Langhorne, of Mirador, Va., son of Mr. Chiswell D. Langhorne.

Miss Pig-Aylett Royall, who entertained Miss Forsythe during the Richmond Horse Show and has been a member of an anti-suffrage house party at Nydrie, will be one of the attendants at the wedding to-day.

Mrs. T. Moncreux Perkins, of this city, the groom's sister, will also be present. Friends going up from Richmond can take the Chesapeake and Ohio train over the James River division, and reach their destination at 2:30 P. M. The early train of Thursday will put them back in the city at 8:40 A. M. of that day.

Vallie-Taliaferro.
Miss Annie Russell Taliaferro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Taliaferro, was married to Mr. William Robert Vallie, Jr., son of Mr. William Vallie, of Hanover Courthouse, at 7:30 o'clock last evening, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Gerald Culbertson in the Third Christian Church, which was decorated with palms, ferns and yellow chrysanthemums.

Miss Olive Norment was maid of honor, and Misses Ruth Weisiger, Annie Vallie, Edna Goldsmith and Margaret Cox the bridesmaids. Little Miss Madge Taliaferro was ring-bearer; Misses Rosalie Norment and Josephine Talley gathered up the ribbons. Mr. Mortimer Walsh was best man to the groom, who was also attended by Messrs. William Lipscomb, Frank Vallie, B. Bayless, Hartwell and William Norment and Aubrey Burrus. Miss Mary Talley was at the organ.

The bride came in with her brother, Mr. Samuel Norment Taliaferro. She was gown in a blue cloth traveling costume and carried Bride roses. The maid of honor wore white over yellow and had an arm bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids wore white with yellow girdles and carried maiden-hair ferns.

Mr. and Mrs. Vallie will spend their honeymoon North, and return to make their home at No. 414 North Seventh Street.

Gold Medal to D. A. R.'s.
Mrs. Benjamin L. Purcell, Virginia chairman of the national exhibit of the Daughters of the American Revolution, at Jamestown Exposition, was notified by telegram yesterday that the jury of award of the exposition had given D. A. R.'s a gold medal and a diploma in recognition of the great historic value and beauty of their contribution to the exhibition.

Mrs. Purcell is naturally gratified at so decided a compliment to the daughters. She has been most untiring in collecting historic relics throughout Virginia.

Mrs. Swanson and her guest, Miss Mary Osborne Templeton, of Waynesboro, Va., accompanied by two of Miss Templeton's friends, Mr. Martin, of Savannah, Ga., and Mr. Stokes, of Chicago, occupied a box at the Academy Monday evening to hear Madame Schumann-Heink. Afterward the party went to supper at the Jefferson Hotel, where Mrs. Swanson had the pleasure of meeting the great singer and talking with her.

Personal Mention.
Mr. and Mrs. George E. Caskie, of Lynchburg, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Fannie Johnson, to Mr. Donald Graeme Moore. The ceremony will take place at the First Presbyterian Church, Lynchburg, Tuesday, November 12th, at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. William E. Turner has returned from the North and is occupying apartments at the Hotel Richmond.

Mrs. James F. Bradley, of No. 209 East Franklin Street, left on Saturday for Washington, D. C., to attend the Craig-Gardner wedding, which took place in that city on yesterday.

Miss Hockaday, Mrs. J. L. Lindsay, Miss Isabel Lindsay, Mrs. J. B. Wood, Miss Florence Wood and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lyons, of this city, are spending some time at the exposition.

Misses Mary and Sue Davidson, of Lexington, Va., are at No. 217 East Franklin Street. Later they will visit the exposition.

Miss Alice R. Gordon, who has been visiting friends in Richmond, will spend the winter at the home of Dr. W. J. Chewning, on George Street, Fredericksburg.

Messrs. W. G. Massey and P. M. Edwards are visiting friends in Spotsylvania county.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Graves Temple, of Petersburg, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Emma Bland, to Mr. Herbert Rogers. The wedding will take place on the evening of Thursday, November 14th, at 6 o'clock, in St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Petersburg.

Mrs. N. H. Halston, who has been quite sick for some time in Richmond, has returned to her home in Roanoke.

Mrs. J. P. Rowe has returned to Fredericksburg, after a visit to relatives here and a trip to the exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Putnam, of New York City, are guests at "Peluso," the lovely home of Colonel and Mrs. W. W. Harper, in West Orange.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Southall, of Lynchburg, have come to Richmond to enable Mr. Southall to receive hospital treatment.

Mr. John Tillman, who is attending school in Richmond this session, is spending a few days at his home in Crozet.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Effinger and Miss Catherine Effinger, of Staunton, are at the exposition.

Mr. W. G. Mathews, of Clifton Forge, is spending a few days in the city.

Mr. Raymond Dunn is visiting relatives in Clifton Forge.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Robinson, of Radford, have issued invitations to the marriage of their sister, Miss Annie Robinson, to Mr. Albert Richard Beck, of Richmond. The wedding will take place at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, November 6th, at the home of the bride.

Captain Shackelford has returned from a short visit to Roanoke.

Miss Lettie G. Bowyer, of Roanoke, is the guest of friends in Richmond.

Mr. Roper Raines has returned after a pleasant visit to his parents, Major and Mrs. W. W. Raines, in Bowling Green.

The Virginia branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions of the Protestant Episcopal Church will hold its annual conference in Christ Church, Charlottesville, on the 6th and 7th of November.

Miss Mary Custis Lee, who has been recently the guest of Mrs. Philip T. Yeaman, in Alexandria, is now visiting friends in Richmond.

Miss Gault Norton and Miss Nannie Norton, of Alexandria, are the guests of their sister, Mrs. Alexander Sands.

The younger society set of Roanoke is looking forward with unusual interest to the V. M. I.-V. P. I. game on Saturday next. Several entertainments will be given in honor of the two teams.

Miss Mary Osborne Templeton, of Waynesboro, Va., is visiting Mrs. Swanson, at the Executive Mansion.

Powell-Schooler.
At the rectory of Christ Episcopal Church Monday morning at 8 o'clock, a quiet, but beautiful ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. Otis Mead, who united in marriage Miss Sallie A. Schooler and Mr. Alonzo G. Powell, both prominent young people of Church Hill.

The bride wore a handsome traveling dress of blue, with hat and gloves to match, and was attended by Miss Emma Clark. The best man was Mr. Samuel Powell, brother of the groom.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Powell left for Washington, Baltimore and the Jamestown Exposition. On their return they will make their home at No. 249 Jefferson Street, Danville, Va.

Japanese Fete.
The scholars of St. John German Evangelical Sunday school will have a Japanese fete on Wednesday with tables and music. On Thursday "Cinderella" will be given.

Dog-Tired!

It is good for you to work, but not good to get "dog-tired." If you are weak, only a little work will put you into that condition and you may find it hard to rally.

When this weakness is due to female disease, it is best to go to the root of the trouble and take Cardui. Cardui has been found to build up weak womanly organs, and should do for you the same as it has done for many thousands of others.

Composed of purely vegetable, absolutely harmless, ingredients, Cardui forms a safe and reliable remedy, of specific power over the womanly organs, and without injurious after-effects, on young or old.

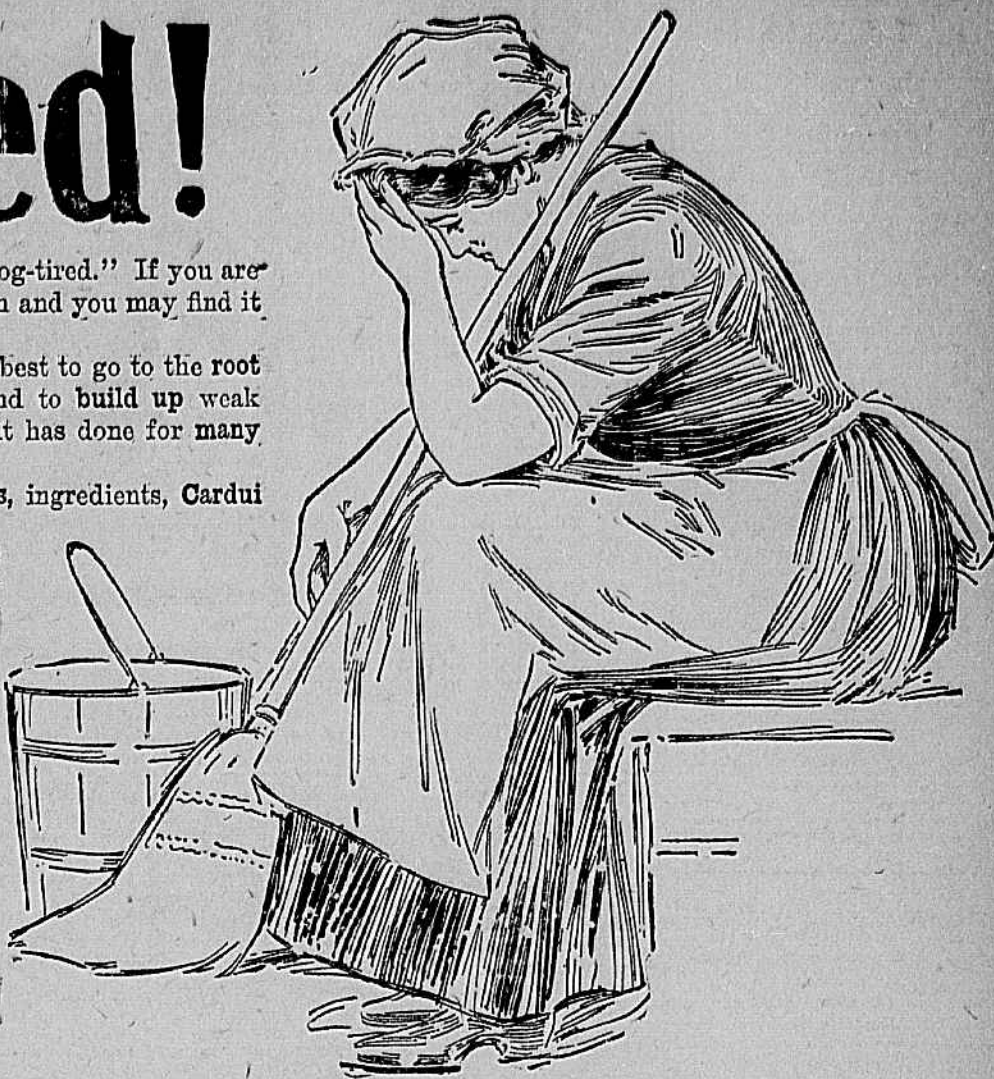

Take Cardui, when you are tired, exhausted, weary with the suffering and pains which come from the ills peculiar to women.

Take Cardui, when you are weak and lack the energy and ambition to carry on your daily work.

Take Cardui, for it is a woman's medicine, and, if you are a woman, it will surely do you good.

Cardui has been found, by thousands of weak, miserable, suffering women, to relieve headache, backache, dragging feelings and to give new strength, vitality and health.

Having been so successful, for so many years, in relieving the sufferings of other sick ladies it may surely be expected to do the same for you. Try.

Worlds of Benefit

Fish Creek, Wis., Jan. 27, 1907.

I will gladly tell you, as near as I can, what Cardui has done for me. I suffered from womanly ills for years. Every year it was worse. No one knows what I suffered. Lots of times I had to stay in bed and have a doctor, but instead of getting better I got worse. At last I chanced to see one of your ads and decided to take Cardui. After the third bottle I knew it was doing wonders. Well, I kept right on, till I had taken seven bottles and now I can truly say that I am cured. I can do a big wash the first day as well as the last. I can never say too much for Cardui. I tell everyone about it and have begged a neighbor girl to try it, as I know it will help her. I received worlds of benefit from Cardui, and will always praise it.

"I Could Hardly Work"

Laverne, Tenn., May 27, 1907.

I suffered for some time with womanly trouble, and all summer my health was very bad. I could hardly do my work. At fruit-canning time I was taken very sick, as a result of overwork during the hot weather, and my husband called a physician. He left some medicine, which I took without the least benefit. I suffered so much and grew so weak, that I became alarmed and told my husband he must get me some Cardui. I obtained relief almost from the first dose, and before I had taken half a bottle I was doing my work again. I am still taking Cardui, as I believe that it strengthens me and is good for my baby. I am always telling my friends what a friend Cardui has been to me. I think it is the best medicine made, for women.

SUSPECT FOUL PLAY AS TO UNDERWOOD

His Body Exhumed, Analysis of Stomach to Be Made and Inquest Held.

BENNETT UNDER ARREST

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FLODY, Va., October 5.—The body of Merrill Underwood, who was buried on the 23rd of October at White Oak Grove, some five miles from this place, was taken up by the coroner, Dr. B. L. Lawrence, on Sunday, and the stomach removed in the presence of a jury of inquest summoned for that purpose. The stomach, with a piece of the liver, will be sent to the state chemist for analysis.

Underwood, who was originally from this county, married and moved to West Virginia some few years ago. He decided to return to this county and sent his wife and baby by rail, and started through the country on horseback, accompanied by one Charles A. Bennett. They arrived in this county on the 21st of October, when Underwood was taken violently ill. A physician was called in and pronounced it spinal meningitis. Underwood lived until the following Monday, when he died.

showing that Underwood stated to his mother when he reached home that he believed he had been poisoned. Other witnesses are to be examined, and what the verdict of the inquest will be cannot be determined until the State chemist can be heard from.

REV. MR. HEIGHAM RESIGNS.

Westmoreland County Rector Withdraws—Fredericksburg News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., November 5.—Rev. Dr. Heigham has resigned as rector of the Episcopal churches at Montross, Oak Grove and Colonial Beach, in Westmoreland county, and of Payne's Chapel, in King George county. D. L. Hamer, a Union veteran, of Herkimer county, New York, who was provost-marshal of Fredericksburg during the Civil War from April to August, 1862, when General Pope was here in command, has been here for a number of days visiting the battlefields. The city and surroundings were familiar to him, and incidents, dates, and names of old citizens are fresh in his mind. He served throughout the war, and made a good soldier's record. Mr. Hamer is seventy-six years of age, but is hale and hearty and looks much younger.

J. B. Newton, of King George, while returning to his home from this city, was thrown from his wagon and had one of his legs broken.

THEIR BODIES LAY TOGETHER.

Young Deans and Sweetheart Whom He Killed Not Separated in Death. NORFOLK, Va., November 5.—At an inquest held this afternoon, a verdict was brought in to the effect that Miss Lula Johnson came to her death as the result of pistol wounds inflicted by her lover, Joseph B. Deans, who shot her last night and then killed himself. Funeral services over the remains of the young man will take place from Smith's undertaking establishment at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. The interment to be in Elmwood Cemetery. Funeral services over the girl will not be arranged for until after the arrival here of her parents from Woodsville, N. C. Until after the inquest, the bodies of the two lay together in the morgue of Smith's undertaking establishment, Paul Street.

transference took place. Deans, who was a man of steady habits, is said to have been unusually morose for some time preceding the double tragedy.
